RE: MATTERS FROM THE PUBLIC

Mr. James Henshaw expressed concerns about the County holding a public hearing for a proposed bonus to County employees and what impact that would have on taxpayers.

Mr. Ken Copeland spoke against the County's involvement in the 287(g) program with the Department of Homeland Security, citing concerns about civil rights and due process and requesting more transparency.

RE: PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER A SPECIAL USE PERMIT TO ALLOW LIVESTOCK ON APPROXIMATELY SIXTEEN (16) ACRES OF GRAZEABLE LAND, IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 5-1-2.2 OF THE GREENE COUNTY ZONING ORDINANCE

Mr. Frydl provided the staff report on the special use permit to allow livestock on a property on Maple Creek Road in Stanardsville. The property has been a farm for as long as anyone is aware, however, it was zoned R-1, Residential, in the original zoning, according to Mr. Frydl. The ordinance states that in order to have livestock on R-1 zoning, property owners must go through a special use permit process and if it's approved it expires after two years. The property has not had livestock on it for a period of time and the only way for them to be permitted to add livestock to the farming operation is going through the special use permit process again. The Planning Commission recommended approval for the special use permit with the following condition that there be at least two acres of rangeable land to make sure the animals are healthy.

The Chair opened the public hearing.

There were no public speakers.

The Chair closed the public hearing.

Mr. Goolsby said the issue is pretty cut and dry—the property has been a farm in the past and they're going through the process to put livestock on it again. He appreciated that the property owner did not just put livestock on the property without getting the correct permit. Ms. Durrer agreed.

Mr. Hartung asked if two acres is enough for rotating the livestock. Ms. Morris, the applicant, said it's actually 16 acres of land they'll be utilizing.

Mr. Catalano said he was surprised it wasn't zoned A-1 Agricultural to begin with.

Upon motion by Matthew Hartung, second by Marie Durrer, and unanimous roll call vote, the special use permit was approved with the one condition regarding having at least two acres of land for the livestock (Attachment "A").

Recorded vote:	Steve Catalano	-	Yes
	Marie Durrer	-	Yes
	Tim Goolsby	-	Yes
	Matthew Hartung	-	Yes
	Davis Lamb	-	Yes

Motion carried.

RE: WATER PROJECTS UPDATE

Mr. Herb White presented an update to the Board regarding the ongoing water projects for the White Run Reservoir project. Mr. White said the contractors have crossed over Fredericksburg Road and started on Vista Heights Road for the Raw Water Main. Mr. White estimates the project will be completed within the next two months, weather permitting. Division Three, which is the raw water pump station, construction is underway. The large lagoon is now gone, where the pump station is going to sit. They have done some rock borings out there to get a better understanding of the quality of rock and the contractor is going to be proceeding with excavation of the hole that the pump station is going to be in. For Division Four, which is the reservoir project, WW Associates has submitted the erosion sediment control plans to the County and completing the design drawings to submit to the Department of Conservation and Recreation for review in the near future. The plans are being reduced from 3 million gallons a day to 2 million gallons a day and are value engineering the project. Additionally, the Stanardsville Wastewater Plant plans were submitted for improvements to that site to DEQ, as well as to the County with the hopes to advertise that project soon.

There were no questions from the Board.

RE: JOINT WORKSHOP WITH THE PLANNING COMMISSION

The Chair opened the joint workshop with the Planning Commission at 7 p.m.

Mr. Frydl welcomed four Planning Commissioners in attendance and the Supervisors for the kickoff of the Comprehensive Plan update. He outlined the state requirements, the purpose and implementation of the plan, and answered questions from the stakeholders. The plan is expected to be completed in 2028 and will involve citizen participation.

Mr. Frydl said in response to the request regarding expanding the growth area at a previous workshop, that at the beginning of every Comprehensive Plan the Planning Commission looks at existing conditions in the County and if findings a need to expand the growth area how that would look. In looking at the current zoning in our growth area, he said that a large amount does not match the zoning the County has said it wants to see in that area.

Mr. Frydl said staff plans to attend the Black Bear Festival and ask the citizens about their preference regarding expansion of the growth area.

Mr. Wajda asked if Mr. Frydl is aware of best practices for the amount of land that should in be in growth centers but not developed. Mr. Frydl said he was unaware of any parameters and it would likely be different for each community.

Mr. Lamb asked about traffic on U.S. Route 29 in Ruckersville and consistent accidents throughout that main corridor. Mr. Frydl said parallel roads are in the plan as construction takes place. Access management is mentioned in the Comprehensive Plan, but it could be expanded with additional information.

Mr. Snow asked about site readiness funding. Mr. Frydl said the state has a grant program, but the County was unable to fund it in the Fiscal Year 2027 budget. Mr. Catalano said there are items that are planned but are not realistic based on the County's financing, including affordable housing programs subsidized by the County. He also said he felt expanding the growth area would allow for more inventory for commercial development to take place and be more attractive to new businesses. He said just because it's considered a growth area does not mean it will contain residential growth, and he wants to be sure the public is aware of that.

Mr. Wajda said there has been a lot of public comments from people in Greene who want to preserve the rural character.

Mr. Frydl summarized the items that the group was concerned about for this iteration of the Comprehensive Plan including traffic management, specifically access management, stakeholder groups to reach out to during the plan creation, an audit of the current goals and ideas and whether the County's size and budget prohibit them from becoming reality, the growth area.

The Chair closed the workshop at 8 p.m. and returned to the regular meeting.

Upon motion by Marie Durrer, second by Tim Goolsby and unanimous roll call vote, the resolution allowing the County Administrator to sign the letter giving the permission was approved as presented (Attachment "E").
